Corporate United Announcing Expansion of Executive Team
Leading GPO adds new leaders to sourcing and business development functions

CLEVELAND, OH – March 20, 2007 – Corporate United, the nation’s largest group purchasing organization, today announced the additions of former PolyOne director Gary Como and wealth management advisor Craig Lucas. These new hires are in direct response to the significant growth of Corporate United.

“We are pleased and excited to add individuals the caliber of Gary and Craig,” said Corporate United COO Marc Rosen. “We are confident that this will give us the ability to better serve the changing needs of our membership.”

Corporate United recently grew to more than 100 member companies. This remarkable growth has been met with the Ohio-based GPO doubling its internal staff over the last two years.

“These hires are specifically designed to allow Corporate United to carry out its dual missions;” said Corporate United president Gregg Mylett. “to source and manage the best possible leveraged contracts and to work more closely and productively with our member organizations.”

Corporate United has already announced plans to further expand the business this year.
