CORPORATE UNITED ANNOUNCES NEW CENTIMARK ROOFING PROGRAM TO DELIVER GREATER VALUE TO MEMBERS

CLEVELAND – April 6, 2010 – Corporate United, the nation’s largest group purchasing organization, is pleased to announce a newly enhanced roofing option through its supplier, CentiMark. CentiMark is a full-service commercial and industrial roofing contractor and parent company to QuestMark Flooring. The new contract is geared toward members that are seeking more comprehensive roofing project management support.

The new roofing program option includes benefits and features such as:

- Greater budget transparency through competitive market analysis and contractor comparison breakdowns
- A more comprehensive online tool to manage the status of all roof conditions, inspections, bids, and warranties across Corporate United member locations
- Dedicated implementation support to ensure all member locations achieve the program benefits

Furthermore, Corporate United members who choose to commit to this new program will achieve preferred status with CentiMark, allowing them to take advantage of additional pricing discounts and more flexible payment terms.

“CentiMark has been serving Corporate United and our members with commercial and industrial roofing products and services since 2003,” says Gary Como, vice president, sourcing operations for Corporate United. “Furthermore, our members nominated CentiMark as the Corporate United ‘Supplier of the Year’ in 2008, which speaks to the supplier’s superior commitment to and performance for our organization.”
