CORPORATE UNITED RENEGOTIATES RELOCATION AGREEMENT WITH WEICHERT RELOCATION RESOURCES INC.

CLEVELAND – May 20, 2010 – Corporate United is pleased to announce its new relocation services agreement with Weichert Relocation Resources Inc. (WRI). WRI, one of the world's leading full-service relocation and assignment management firms, will provide Corporate United members access to its market-leading services through this best-in-class agreement.

The WRI agreement provides Corporate United members the following benefits:

- Complete end-to-end solutions for virtually any corporate relocation move
- Improved reporting to demonstrate program savings, providing more visibility into the value of the agreement
- Access to a premiere mortgage financing program
- Expert consultation and gross-up services from in-house tax specialists
- Individual and group rebate incentives

By applying expertise to relocation policies and risk management strategies to real estate portfolios, the Corporate United agreement provides avenues for significant cost reductions.

Pricing & Financial Terms

Corporate United members receive a group rebate incentive for this agreement, as well as preferred pricing that reflects the spend volume of the membership.

Implementation & Compliance

Corporate United coordinates the implementation process between its members and suppliers to ensure savings and other improvements are realized in an expedient manner. Corporate United also works with members to ensure all compliance objectives are met in the post-implementation phase. This includes working with WRI to conduct business reviews, deliver customized reports, drive continuous improvement and facilitate productive communication between all parties.

Contract & Supplier Management

Corporate United works with WRI to ensure adherence to terms and conditions of the agreement and guarantee pricing and service level accuracy.
