MARC ROSEN NAMED PRESIDENT OF CORPORATE UNITED

CLEVELAND – September 2, 2008 – Corporate United, the nation’s leading group purchasing organization, announced that Marc Rosen has been promoted to president. Rosen, who has been chief operating officer of Corporate United since 2003, succeeds Corporate United Founder Gregg Mylett, who will continue to serve as chief executive officer.

“We are extremely pleased to announce the appointment of Marc Rosen to president and are confident his 20 plus years of experience will continue to drive Corporate United’s growth and success,” says Mylett.

As president, Rosen’s primary responsibilities will include deployment of capital, company oversight and organizational development, as well as setting the company’s strategic direction.

Prior to joining Corporate United, Rosen served as founder and president of The Vector Group. He was also vice president of strategic accounts for Watlow Electric Manufacturing Company, business unit vice president for GEA Tuchenhausen, vice president of corporate accounts for State Industrial Products and vice president of international accounts, as well as several other positions, for the Diversey Corporation.

Rosen holds a bachelor of arts in marketing from the University of Missouri and an MBA from the University of Michigan. He and his family currently reside in Brecksville, Ohio.
